

Charles Bowman PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP Senior Assurance Partner

Charles Bowman is an audit partner and specialises in delivering audit and capital market transaction services for larger listed companies. Charles has been a partner for 16 years.

Recent Experience:

Charles has considerable audit and assurance experience of top-tier public companies. Until recently, he has led PwC's Top-Tier Audit and Assurance practice.

Having spent several years as a lead audit partner, he is an accredited listings and due diligence partner and has extensive experience of stock exchange reporting and working alongside investment banker, legal and other advisor teams. He has also advised clients on other assurance assignments including IFRS conversions and Sarbanes Oxley.

Charles has recently become Chairman of the Audit and Assurance Faculty of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. He also leads the UK firm's network of partners reviewing the Corporate Reporting agenda.

Personal:

Charles is married, with two daughters and lives in East Anglia (near Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk). His interests outside of work include golf, art and architecture and a small flock of sheep.